Join Andrew Mackenzie at this one day workshop to obtain practical insights into overcoming the challenges of managing and growing your business.

During the day you will learn how to identify the key levers that drive your business performance, enabling you to improve the productivity of your staff and your business.

This workshop will help you to:

- Improve your decision-making skills
- Anticipate issues in your business
- Plan realistically based on accurate understanding of the capacity in your business
- Resolve communication issues
- Improve your confidence and understanding of your role as CEO

In addition, you'll benefit from a networking opportunity with your fellow CEOs and Key Managers.

We're certain you'll enjoy the workshop and leave with important tools you can put into action in your business.

"The Master Class challenged my thinking and way of looking at things. It stimulated my interest and left me wanting more."

Andreas Paxie, General Manager (ACCO)
